The Essence Of Life

Johnson C. Smith University is more than just an institution. While giving us intellectual stimulation, she has helped us to become better people. We would not be what we are today had it not been for her. Smith has helped us to prepare for one of the most important days of our lives — tomorrow. We came to Smith with just one purpose in mind — to be somebody. Because of her, that's not just a dream anymore.

J.C.S.U. holds many memories for all of us. Now is the time to recognize ourselves and our world as they are and to look with determination toward what we and it can be. It is the time to place our faith not in something, but in life. We can change this world, if only by changing ourselves. From this point on, it is up to all of us to pursue life. If we seek true harmony with each other, each of us will be the oasis the other has been seeking. It is to those of you who are not afraid to reach out, those who can relate to one another, and are willing to work at letting each other know it, that we dedicate this 1973 edition of THE BULL.

The Essence of Life is man and woman . . . giving, doing, growing, sharing, dreaming, hoping, seeking, finding, feeling, believing, loving, daring to be themselves.

Brothers and sisters, let there be life.

DEDICATION

We were both new and eager to prove that we could stand the pressure and accomplish the task that we had set out to do. And time proved us right. Dr. Newsom, you demonstrated not only ability, but you showed us another side not often seen by students in an educational institution. You showed us the human side. We could always depend on a warm smile and a hearty handshake. Your doors were always open, ready and willing to listen to our complaints and problems. You were a friend to us when we needed a friend most. The Senior Class takes great pride in dedicating this edition of The Bull to you, Dr. Newsom, for truly you deserve it.

DR. LIONEL H. NEWSOM
9th President
Johnson C. Smith University

NEWSOM ALPHA'S MAN OF THE YEAR

Dr. Lionel H. Newsom was named "Man of the Year" by the Beta Nu Lambda Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Inc., of Charlotte, N. C. He was selected because of his outstanding service to the Charlotte community and Johnson C. Smith University.

The Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity awarded Attorney Julius Chambers the award last year because of his outstanding work in civil rights.

Dr. Newsom is a member of the fraternity and more than thirty-five thousand men have been initiated into Alpha Phi Alpha since its founding in 1906 at Cornell University. The fraternity has been interracial since 1945 and there are now 155 chapters and 220 alumni chapters in the 41 states including Africa, the West Indies, Europe and Vietnam.

Since the announcing of Dr. Newsom's resignation as president of Johnson C. Smith University he has been honored numerous times prior to his departure to Central State University, Wilberforce, Ohio where he is to assume his new presidency.

PRESIDENT LIONEL H. NEWSOM was elected a member of the Charlotte Board of North Carolina National Bank. During the year, Dr. Newsom received another precedent appointment in Charlotte when he became a member of the Charlotte Civil Service Board. He became the first Black member and will serve a two-year term on the five-man committee.

THE PRESIDENT'S CHARGE TO THE CLASS OF 1971

Today, the sixteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred seventy one belongs to you only, and yet it belongs to you individually and collectively. You are among a precious few black youths who will receive the baccalaureate degrees this year. This is true in spite of the fact that this is the largest class in the history of Johnson C. Smith University. Your challenge is to work with all your strength, mind and soul in order that it may be possible for many more to follow you. If we are to overcome the bitterness of oppression, the hurt of persecution, the hunger pangs of poverty, and the deliberate denials of our civil rights, many, many more must pass this way. You are tomorrow's leaders, like it or not, the responsibilities and penalties of leadership will be thrust upon you. Therefore, you should wear the name of Johnson C. Smith with noble pride and human dignity.

BUILD A NEW JERUSALEM

Most of us are from, what was called when I was young, the slum; but now we've given it a fancy name called the ghetto. It's the same. The houses are dilapidated; the rats are as big as cats. Roaches still run across your beds. We still have outhouses, and we still live without electricity. We have the highest rate of crime, the highest incident of infant mortality, the highest (tubercular rate, and we could go down the line listing all of these things.) And the highest illiteracy rate.

How are we going to change it? We are only going to change it in institutions like Johnson C. Smith University. One writer said — and I think that it was William Blake — "Bring me my bow of gleaming gold. Bring me my idles of desire. My sword shall not sleep in my hand, oh chariot of fire." We shall build within this country a new Jerusalem. We shall build Johnson C. Smith a stronger and a better institution. We must do this not by 'burn baby burn.' I know that the tensions are high in the ghetto, but we only burn ourselves up, increase the poverty, and raise the pile of ashes high. But, what we should be saving is to get mad with opportunity — learn baby learn. Your parents, relatives and friends want to help. I have talked with many parents who have come to me about you; I have talked to you, and I will continue as all of these other people will continue to work with you to help you become what you want to become. The only way we can do that is by having your help.

HOMECOMING

It is fun time in the Queen city. All of Charlotte seems to have converged on "the hill". For it is time to honor Smith graduates, to express loyalty and love for the University, and to demonstrate progress.

It is Homecoming '72 — the same but somehow different . . .

She's petite, pretty, long hair and fashionable — today's college co-ed.

She's tall, dark, natural-coifed, neat,
but not too fancy in dress — the college militant.

She's naive, dependent — pampered by mother, sponsored by father, out to catch that man or be an old maid at 21.

She's a heavy! Independent, and her goals are high. She works and struggles to get what she wants.

She's society-oriented — a sorority girl,
a college queen.

She's intelligent, but learning; proud and chaste; lovely to behold, but often hard to understand, searching for something, feeling things and people out.

She's aware, a doer — Who's Who in American Colleges, a staunch young worker in the church.

She takes, she gives
She seeks, she feels
She wants, she loves
She is the Black woman on today's college campus!

The Essence of Life . . .

The image is a complex, layered composition dominated by the word "ORGANIZATIONS". The text is arranged in a dense, vertical stack, with each instance of the word slightly offset from the one above it, creating a sense of depth and movement. The color palette is primarily black and white, with occasional splashes of bright red. The font appears to be a classic serif typeface, possibly Times New Roman or similar, which adds a formal, institutional feel to the otherwise chaotic arrangement. The overall effect is reminiscent of a collage or a digital glitch, where the repetition of a single concept creates a new, more complex visual language. The background is a solid, deep black, which makes the white and red text stand out sharply. The edges of the letters are sometimes blurred or semi-transparent, further enhancing the layered appearance. The word "ORGANIZATIONS" is repeated approximately 20-25 times, though some instances are partially obscured by others, suggesting a continuous, perhaps infinite, cycle of the word's presence. The orientation of the text is almost entirely vertical, reinforcing the upward-pointing shape of the entire graphic. There are no other discernible elements, figures, or symbols present, making the word itself the sole subject and medium of the artwork.

I DREAM A WORLD

I dream a world where man
No other will scorn,
Where love will bless the earth
And peace its paths adorn.
I dream a world where all
Will know sweet freedom's way,
Where greed no longer saps the soul
Nor avarice blights our day.
A world I dream where black or white,
Whatever race you be,
Will share the bounties of the earth
And every man is free,
Where wretchedness will hang its head,
And joy, like a pearl,
Attend the needs of all mankind.
Of such I dream—
Our world!

Dynamic Delta!

Delta Women!

Spring Line 1973

... In Delta we have the living of service rather than the giving of service — the promise to ourselves as black women to bring about love, peace, harmony and sincere concern for those around us. In our goals and aspirations we seek to become all that we are capable of becoming and in doing so we become even more dynamic as a sorority. Delta Sigma Theta will forever be a sorority of dedicated women with an impressive past, a fulfilling present, and a lucrative future!

On December 4, 1906 at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York, the first Black college fraternity was founded, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. It was founded with the aims: manly deeds, scholarship, and love for all mankind. Here, on the campus of Johnson C. Smith, the nine active brothers of Alpha Phi Alpha Chapter are working each day to maintain these aims.

We, the brothers of Alpha Phi Alpha, in an effort to maintain our aims, wholeheartedly believe that "Without brotherhood there can only be chaos; with brotherhood we may look forward to reaching the ultimate goal of mankind — peace with freedom and justice".

Each of the seven brothers of Alpha Epsilon Chapter are active working Sigmas committed to serving humanity, yet each with a distinctive, creative personality who experiences semi-orgasm, not through self-praise and glorification, but through meaningful contributions to society. Seven good reasons at John C. Smith University and over 30,000 throughout the world) why Phi Beta Sigma is "often Imitated but never duplicated!"

Service Is Our Thing

Alpha Phi Omega is an international service fraternity. We are a diverse fraternity, and yet we are united in our diversity. We all share the common goals of leadership, friendship, and service. We like to think service to the chapter comes after service to our fellowman on campus, in the community, and in the nation.

Friends, we invite you to join us in service to the campus, community, and nation. No college education today is complete without engaging in service to mankind.

Since 1925 Alpha Phi Omega has been the one persistent service-oriented organization on college campuses. It is unique in being a true fraternity in fellowship, but one inclusive in membership, respecting each man's right to be proud of his race, his color, his religion, and his political preferment.

If We Must Die

Claude McKay

If we must die, let it not be like hogs
Hunted and penned in an inglorious spot,
While round us bark the mad and hungry dogs,
Making their muck at our accursed lot.
If we must die, O let us nobly die,

So that our precious blood may not be shed.
In vain; then even the monsters we defy
Shall be constrained to honor us through dead!
O kinsmen! We must meet the common foe!
Though far outnumbered let us show us brave,

And for their thousand blows deal one death blow!
What though before us lies the open grave?
Like men we'll face the murderous, cowardly pack,
Pressed to the wall, dying, but fighting back!

SYMPATHY

I know what the caged bird feels, alas,
When the sun is bright on the upland slopes;
When the wind stirs soft through the springing grass
And the river flows like a stream of glass;
When the first bird sings and the first bud opes,
And the faint perfume from its chalice steals —
I know what the caged bird feels!

I know why the caged bird beats his wing
Till its blood is red on the cruel bars;
For he must fly back to his perch and cling
When he fain would be on the bough a-swing;
And a pain still throbs in the old, old scars
And they pulse again with a keener sting —
I know why he beats his wing!

I know why the caged bird sings, ah me,
When his wing is bruised and his bosom sore,
When he beats his bars and would be free;
It is not a carol of joy or glee,
But a prayer that he sends from his heart's deep core,
But a plea, that upward to Heaven he flings —
I know why the caged bird sings!

Paul Lawrence Dunbar

Let a new earth rise. Let another world be born.
Let a bloody peace be written in the sky. Let a second generation full of courage issue forth; let a people loving freedom come to growth. Let a beauty full of healing and a strength of final clenching be the pulsing in our spirits and our blood. Let the marital songs be written, let the dirges disappear. Let a race of men now rise and take control.

Life is Fine
I went down to the river,
I set down on the bank.
I tried to think but couldn't,
So I jumped in and sank.

I came up once and hollered!
I came up twice and cried!
If that water hadn't a-been so cold
I might've sunk and died.

But it was
Cold in that water!
It was cold!

I took the elevator
Sixteen floors above the ground.
I thought about my baby
And thought I would jump down.

I stood there and I hollered!
I stood there and I cried!
If it hadn't a-been so high
I might've jumped and died.

But it was
High up there!
It was high!

So since I'm still here livin',
I guess I will live on.
I could've died for love —
But for livin' I was born.

Though you may hear me holler,
And you may see me cry —
I'll be dogged, sweet baby,
If you gonna see me die.

Life is fine!
Fine as wine!
Life is fine!

Growing Clean

Donald Green

When I was a kid
I used to get up
Every Saturday
Morning and wash.
Sometimes for two
Or three hours.

When I came out
I'd look at my skin
And it was so clear
I'd go to mama and say:

"Look, I'm getting white."

She'd smile, agree
And go on with her chores.
Things have changed so
Much since then.

I hardly wash any more.

IN MEMORIAM

GAYHEART ALONZO SIMS

September 28, 1951 — July 3, 1972

Gayheart Alonzo Sims, a senior Political Science major from Spartanburg, South Carolina succumbed on July 3, 1972. He was the son of the late Mr. Nathaniel Charles Sims and Mrs. Bertha G. Sims. He was a graduate of Carver Senior High School where his activities included the Student Council, Boys Council, Newspaper and Yearbook Staffs, and Chemistry and Physics Clubs. He was a member of Thompson Street Baptist Church where he served as a member of the Youth Choir and Youth Bible Class.

Gayheart was an avid member of the Tennis Team, better known as the Golden "Netters". He will always be remembered for his keen sense of humor and for his ability to get along with others.

And now, O Lord —
When I've done drunk my last cup of sorrow,
When I've been called everything but a child of God,
When I'm done traveling up the rough side of the mountain,
O Mary's Baby —
When I start down the steep and slippery steps of death,
When this old world begins to rock beneath my feet,
Lower me to my dusty grave in peace
To wait for that great gittin' up morning.

Amen

IN MEMORIAM

JAMES RUSSELL PETERS

April 24, 1951 — October 31, 1972

James Russell Peters was born to Mr. and Mrs. Revie Columbus Peters in Statham, Georgia. He joined the Barbers Creek Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Joseph Sims where he served faithfully on the usher board, being president for three years.

"Pete" was a 1969 honor graduate of the Glenwood High School of Winder, Georgia. During his senior year he was named Escort of the Year in the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Debutant Affair. He was presently enrolled as a senior at Smith where he had received the honor of being named to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. Pete was a member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc., President of the Pan-Hellenic Council, and a stalwart member of the Johnson C. Smith University Choir. An honor student since entering Smith, Pete was a political science major and was to attend law school upon graduation.

Sunset and evening star
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.

... For though from out our bourne of time and place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

Tennyson

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

Am I Black Enough For You?

Yerly M. Wright
B.A. Economics

I never learned to read and I never learned to write,
'cause when I grew up, schooling was just for the white.
Now I work 18 hours every day the lawd sen'.
Making $25 a week and bringing home ten.
Though I've been hated, scorned and abused,
Laughed at because of ignorance and sexually misused,
I know the Lord is watching over me,
He hears me when I pray, moan, groan and plea.
He guides my feeble tongue when I'm a-talking,
Steadies my weak limbs when I commence to walking.
I want to rear my 13 children in an upright way,
But sometimes I don't know how we'll make it from day to day.
Money and food is scarce, though it ain't my will,
And the cold wind whips through our shack and leaves
nothing but chill.
Yet, I'm a good black woman and a good black mother,
too,
So what you got to say,
Mr. Whiteman, am I black enough for you?

S. Rollins

I Am What I Am

Raid my villages, white man
Take my sisters and brothers,
chained and bound
But unslave me
For I am what I am
Take my children and my home
Torture me, burn me
But unslave me
For I am what I am
Hurt my pride
Sterilize my father's masculinity
But unslave me
For I am what I am
Rape me for lust
Sweat me with labor
But soon unslave me
For I am what I am
Now white man I am beginning to stand up tall
Don't torture me or rape me of my knowledge anymore
But now unslave me
Because now I am totally aware that
I am what I am.

Loyalty Song

We love thee, Smith, with all our hearts!

To thee we'll e'er be true,
And in thy light of truth and right

Hold high the Gold and Blue.

Refrain:

Proudly we hail thy name, our Alma Mater, Old S.U.!

Johnson C. Smith, our own! Our hope, our guiding star, our light unfailing!

Pride of our loyal hearts, we'll love and honor thee our whole lives through,

On, ever on! dear old J.C.S.U.!

Fair Smith, where'er on earth we roam,
Send forth thy constant ray
And let it beam with steadfast gleam
To lead us o'er Life's way.

Education

Negro teachers
like preachers give us
daily features
out of their lives
and the past never relating but always crusading
ideas that have come and passed
Then without deliberation
We copy their dictation and hope that these facts
we can grasp
Then one day when we've got our B.A.
We see the real world at last and withdraw in contemplation
at the real life situation and say "the world is just moving too fast."

L. Helena S. Slade
Class of 1957

... For exemplary performance and outstanding leadership as chairperson of the Annual Dances of the Washington, D.C. Chapter, for years of competent and loyal service as corresponding secretary and treasurer and for unselfish devotion and enthusiastic support of the programs of the local chapter and National Alumni Association. Mrs. Slade, wife of Arthur F. Slade, Class of '57 and mother of Lisa and Arthur Jr., has made these valuable contributions to the J. C. Smith Alumni while distinguishing herself as a leader in civic and educational affairs in the Public Schools of the District of Columbia and of Prince George's County, Maryland and while serving as a Director of a Day Care Center of D.C. (O.E.O.)

Clyde H. Brown
Class of 1950

The Charlotte Chapter of the Johnson C. Smith University Alumni Association has named Clyde H. Brown as ALUMNUS OF THE YEAR for the Charlotte Region.

Mr. Brown was chosen for this coveted award because of distinguished service to the Charlotte

Chapter and the community. The esteemed JOHN M. "BOO" MURPHY AWARD was conferred upon him four times for having made the greatest contribution to the chapter's Membership Drive. He has represented himself well as a member of the One-Hundred Club. He is a member of the TIP-OFF TOURNAMENT Committee and served as a team captain of the Greater Charlotte Forward Fund.

Presently employed as a classroom teacher in the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools, Mr. Brown is especially sensitive to the needs of underprivileged youth. Mr. Brown also finds time for other community activities. A member of the Simpson-Gillespie Memorial United Methodist Church, he serves on the Board of Trustees and sings in the choir. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Opportunities Industrialization Center, Charlotte Bureau Training Program, Incorporated and is Chairman of the Arrangements Committee for the Annual North Carolina Fund Raising Dinner for the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund. Mr. Brown received the Master of Arts Degree in 1951 from Teachers' College of Columbia University. He has done further study at New York University and City College of New York. Married to the former Elaine Taylor of Charleston, South Carolina, they have a fourteen year old son.

James Henry Allen
Class of 1960

Mr. James Henry Allen is the recipient of the Alumni Recognition Award from the New Jersey Chapter of Johnson C. Smith University Alumni Association. At present, Mr. Allen is an auditor with the Division of Taxation of the State of New Jersey. During the years 1965-67 the New Jersey Chapter of Johnson C. Smith University Alumni Association had almost ceased to function as a chapter. He takes an active part in local community affairs. He is treasurer and Executive Board member of the Paterson Branch of the NAACP. He is an active member of the Calvary Baptist Church. He is also treasurer of his Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Chapter. He has served as Treasurer and Executive Board Member of Family Counseling Service of Greater Paterson and Vicinity, as a member of the Federation of Neighborhood Councils, as chairman of the Non-Profit Corporation of Calvary Baptist Church, as a member of the Advisory Council of the Boys Club of Paterson, and Treasurer of the Planning Committee of Atlanta Council Cub Scouts of America.

EPILOGUE

Everything must come to an end . . . and so it is with the '73 Bull. We hope that this publication has brought a smile to everyone. In case it hasn't, please accept our apologies.

It is hard for me to thank everyone who has had a hand in the production of this book. But to those of you who made this book what it is I wish to say "Thank you, very much". Without you my task would have ended before it began. To my staff I would like to say that I've enjoyed working with you, recording the many events that from this point on will serve as precious memories to the Class of 73. Thanks for allowing us to take yesterday with us tomorrow.

In parting, I wish you life.

Gave you my eyes
My feet
My soul
And my life
What do what what
What do you want?

Gave you my tongue
My heart
My veins
My voice
And all that I want
What oh what baby
What do you want?

Gave you
Gave you gave you
Gave you
Gave you
Gave gave gave gave gave gave gave
And if you want
